Pink Champagne

1-1/2" Four-Square Cabinet Knob. A contrast of light meets dark using a Pale Pink Mirrored Glass and Champagne Van Gogh Glass with light beige grout.

SQ-410 $22.00

Nestled in the quiet hills of Southeastern Wisconsin's Kettle Moraine, stained glass is being transformed individual pieces of decorative art.

Glance Yar Stained Glass Design combines tradition with innovation using the timeless art of stained glass, a symbol of elegance for generations to create fashionable mosaic cabinet knobs and drawer pulls.

Each design is an exquisite piece of stained glass art, hand-crafted to meet the personal style of each customer. The glass in our hardware is not heat formed whereby a kiln does all the design work for you, but each glass piece is hand-cut, and hand-set the way art glass was designed to be used.

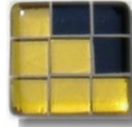

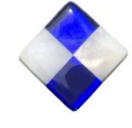

Glance Yar designs are laid back easy style, done in simple shapes using a familiar color palette fresh for the trends of today and tomorrow.

Our unique look in stained glass knob hardware reflects light in a luminous and utterly original fashion. Each piece is hand cut and crafted from stained glass and specialty glass; an art that can never be mass produced due to the intricate process it takes to create each finished piece.

A mix of colors and shapes... it all works for your home décor.

WHAT DOES GLACE YAR MEAN?

Debbie's Grandfather and Great-Uncle owned a catering business, in Chicago, IL. A Swedish immigrant was in their employ to help in preparing their catered dinners. He was looking for olives to garnish a dish and when asked if he wanted the olives that were in the can or ones in the glass jar, he replied in his Swedish accent, "the glace yär." It's used as a play on words with family ties that refer to glass.
